On 28 December 1953, the Prinz Eugen Kaserne, south of Emil Hartmann Strasse and opposite Gustav Freytag Strasse, Rudolstadt, was occupied by about 1,500 troops who wore red-bordered black epaulets, including some with artillery insignia and a few with signal and motor transport insignia. Senior Lieutenant Bobko (fnu), chief of the motor transport section; and Captain Korshinov (fnu), mess officer, were transferred to the U.S.S.R. and left in mid-December. Officers stated that a large number of them would be transferred to the U.S.S.R. prior to the spring of 1953. They will allegedly be replaced by officers of the military post of Zeitz. Major Maladiyonkov (fnu), for unknown reasons, was reduced in rank and sent to the U.S.S.R. in early February.
